

Allegheny Musarium™

Spring 2010

The River Journey
"Yours to Explore"

We know what to do with the 350,000 tourists who will visit the Musarium each year. Are you ready for them to visit your business?

Opening Exhibit -
The Glacier
900,000 BC

See what lived in the prehistoric lake that was here before the glacier. They'll seem alive, but are all done with robotics.

Freshwater aquarium with fish from the St. Lawrence Seaway to the Gulf of Mexico.

Have you ever experienced a Butterfly Pavilion?

Our Discovery Center will be mainly for the children, but the adults will find it fascinating as well. Here ever-changing exhibits will entertain and educate.

EXHIBITS

Planetarium and year-round amphitheater for the sciences and arts.

There will be hands-on learning for children and adults. Fish and wildlife is just the beginning. Experience interactive exhibits of geology, science, archeology, astronomy, conservation and the environment.

Visit the archeological dig and dig for artifacts. Great for kids and adults alike.

We are just one piece of the picture. We all have to work together to make this happen.

Shake hands with Cornplanter in virtual reality.

Visit an early settlement and share the routine of everyday life.

Participate with virtual reality the French and Indian Wars.

Virtual reality will provide you with the thrill of oil being struck in the 1800's.

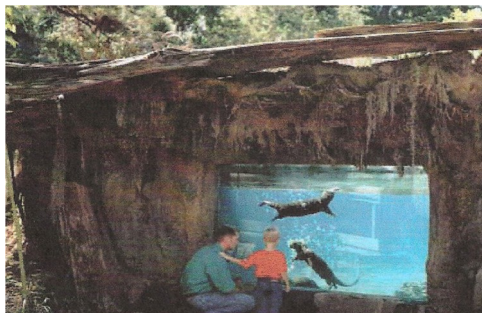

History of the timbering industry from its beginnings to the present.

H I S T O R Y

Attend a ball in a Victorian mansion, watch the dancers swirl in the candlelight.

Turn a corner and see a locomotive screaming toward you belching smoke and steam. Smell the sulfur of the burning coal. Take a tour of the inside of a train, talk to the conductor and learn the ins and outs of rail travel.

Our fundraising activities are in full swing. We have grant applications pending and have applied to numerous private foundations and individuals.

Our newest program, Musarium Without Walls, our educational program for children is almost off the drawing board and hopefully will be up and running by fall. We will keep you posted.

And our thank you to the Jamestown Audubon Society for hosting our presentation of the overview of the Musarium project for their First Friday Lunch Bunch on April 2.

Remember...we have note cards for sale at KC Frameworks and Cady's Hallmark. Limited Edition prints are for sale at KC Frameworks.
